

BRIEF REPORT OF SEMINAR
“CLIENT COUNSELLING”

Date – 23rd November 2019

Venue- Seminar Hall

Sri Balaji Society’s Balaji Law College, Pune, organized a one day Seminar on “Client Counselling” on 23rd November 2019 at 09.30 am. The core concept of the seminar was that primary functions of a lawyer is counseling the client. In this whole exercise, the client becomes a passive spectator if not a mute spectator. This often results in the lawyer taking decisions on behalf of the client. The Seminar enlightened that unlike other counseling, in legal counseling, the client may be looking at the lawyer for various remedies. While assessing so, the lawyer should look at the expectations of the client.

The seminar was held from 09.30. All of the students arrived at the seminar location eager to participate. students in all attended this programme. Honorable Principle Dr. K.J Rao welcomed and congratulated the guest speaker before the session Dr. Madhushree Joshi, Assistant Professor DES Law College Pune.

Dr. K.J Rao addressed the gathering. The session started by 09.35 am. Dr. Madhushree Joshi focused that Client centered counseling requires that lawyer assist the client in the way he/she needs rather than the lawyer taking any decisions on behalf of the client. Counseling is all about giving such information which a client would like to know regarding his legal problem/case.

All the students actively participated in interactions and raised various points which were clarified by the speakers. The speakers were felicitated with shawl, garland and memento.

The session was very fruitful and informative. The Cell In charge, Asst Prof. Priya Mondal expressed gratitude to the resource persons, members of various committees of seminar and management of Balaji Law College. Session ended up with National Anthem.
